

Law via the internet

Free access to law and judicial decisions:
solutions and challenges from a
Belgian viewpoint

Hans Van Bossuyt
Bertel De Groote

---

1. Introductory remarks

2. Online publication of court decisions

3. Standardization of the drafting process as a lever to access to court decisions

4. Concluding remarks

Online publication of court decisions: Regulatory background

- R95/11 : 11.09.2005
- Belgian law : 10.08.2005
- Selection
- Juridat (<http://jure.juridat.just.fgov.be>)

Online publication of court decisions: Privacy concerns

- Art. 6 European Convention Human Rights
- Search Engines
- Belgian law : Phenix-I law

Online publication of court decisions:

Structure of Juridat

- Module I – Consultation
- Module II – Input
- Module III - Administration

Standardization: favours electronic publication

- Huge potential
- Structuring is crucial
- Shared standards

Standardization: independency endangered or improved

- Not contrary to independence
- Enhancing efficiency
- Adding value to efforts

Standardization: enhancing accessibility

- Consistency in structure
- Automation in processing – marking data
- Use of preconditioned labels

---

Standardization: interconnectibility

Label is the key to link elements

Concluding remarks

hans.vanbossuyt@just.fgov.be

bertel.degroote@hogent.be

CHEOPS JUSTITIE – JUSTICE
BIRO - CGIOJ